

Dancer Rachel Butler-Green has been named director of Young Angels Artists & Executives. She has been charged with recruiting emerging artistic and executive talent who give back to their communities and are willing to share their financial strategies and philanthropic priorities.

They included a workshop on the roots of philanthropy. Philip Koerner, Ph.D., Phenomenex conducted a wine tasting featuring St. Francis Sonoma County Chardonnay 2007 and Bottega Vinaia Pinot Grigio Trentino 2008.

Professor Jay Dougherty, Loyola Law School, presented an after-dinner talk on the basics of logo protection.

The Young Artists & Executives Team is made up of twenty-somethings who have been invited to serve as guest faculty for Young Angels Teams around Los Angeles.

For more information on this program contact: rachel@youngangelsofamerica.org